The terms:

If you only use "traditional" radio or television broadcasts, you may be eligible for a concessionary licence fee of 50% of the lowest value Licence Fee per annum. By "traditional" radio or television broadcasts, we mean only the following broadcasts (however delivered):

- > BBC national and local radio stations;
- > All Independent National Radio stations and Independent Local Radio stations (as licensed by Ofcom and listed on www.ofcom.org.uk as "Analogue: FM and AM" stations); and
- > BBC1, BBC2, ITV1, Channel 4, S4C and Five television broadcasts.

In order for the concessionary discount to apply you also need to meet the following criteria:

PPLPP210 Background Music – Public Houses/Bars/Restaurants/Cafes and Hotels
The area of the premises where music is audible must be 50 square metres or less.

PPLPP211 Background Music – Shops and Stores
The area of the premises where music is audible must be 50 square metres or less.

PPLPP212 Background Music – Factories and Offices
The area of the premises where music is audible must be 100 square metres or less.
