GENERAL MEETINGS

14. The Company shall in each calendar year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting and shall specify the meeting as such in notices calling it; provided always that not more than fifteen calendar months shall elapse between the date of the annual general meeting of the Company and that of the next annual general meeting. The annual general meeting shall be held at such time and place as the directors shall appoint.
15. All general meetings other than annual general meetings shall be called extraordinary general meetings.
16. All Members, directors, and auditors of the Company shall be entitled to notice of and to attend general meetings.
17. The directors may, whenever they think fit, convene an extraordinary general meeting, and extraordinary general meetings shall also be convened on such requisition, or, in default, may be convened by such requisitionists, as provided by section 303 of the Act or any substituted provision. If at any time there are not within the United Kingdom sufficient directors capable of acting to form a quorum for the purposes of convening an extraordinary general meeting any director or any two or more Members of the Company may convene an extraordinary general meeting in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which meetings may be convened by the directors.
18. If at any general meeting of the Company it shall be resolved by not less than 75% (seventy five percent) of the Members that the Company should be dissolved or wound up, then an extraordinary general meeting of the Company shall forthwith be convened and held for submitting a special resolution for the winding up of the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Insolvency Act 1986 and section 283 of the Act. Any distributable funds at the date of such winding up shall be distributed pro-rata between the Members, according to the percentage of Net Distributable Revenue allocated by the Company to each of the Members in respect of the most recent year for which such percentages are available.
19. A general meeting may be held at more than one place if:
 - (i) the notice convening the meeting specifies that it shall be held at more than one place; or
 - (ii) the directors resolve, after the notice convening the meeting has been given, that the meeting shall be held at more than one place; or
 - (iii) it appears to the chair of the meeting that the place of the meeting specified in the notice convening the meeting is inadequate to accommodate all persons entitled and wishing to attend.
20. A general meeting held at more than one place shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if (in addition to the other provisions in these Articles relating to meetings) the chair of the meeting is satisfied that adequate facilities are available throughout the meeting to ensure that each person present at each place is able to:
 - (i) participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened;
 - (ii) hear and see all persons who speak (by the use of microphones, loudspeakers, audio-visual communications equipment or otherwise, whether such equipment is in use when these Articles are adopted or developed subsequently) in each meeting place, and be heard and seen by all other persons so present in the same way;

- (iii) have access to all documents which are required by the Statutes or these Articles to be made available at the meeting; and
 - (iv) (in accordance with their rights under the Statutes and these Articles) vote on a show of hands and on a poll and be represented by a proxy.
- 21. The meeting shall be deemed to take place at the place at which the chair of the meeting is present (the "Principal Venue").
- 22. Article 38 shall apply to any interruption or adjournment of a meeting which is being held in more than one place.
- 23. Each person present in person at each meeting place shall be counted in the quorum for, and be entitled to vote at, the general meeting.
- 24. The directors may make arrangements for persons entitled to attend a general meeting or an adjourned general meeting to be able to view and hear the proceedings of, and to speak at, that meeting (in the manner set out in articles 19 to 23) from a location which is not classified as a meeting place. The persons attending at any such location shall not be regarded as present at the general meeting or adjourned general meeting and shall not be entitled to vote at the meeting. The inability for any reason of any person present at such a location to view or hear all or any of the proceedings of, or to speak at, the meeting shall not affect the validity of the proceedings of the meeting.
- 25. The directors may from time to time make such arrangements for limiting the level of attendance at any location for which arrangements have been made under articles 19 to 24 as it considers appropriate. These arrangements may include the issue of tickets (on a basis intended to afford all members and proxies entitled to attend the meeting an equal opportunity of being admitted to any specific venue) or the imposition of some random means of selection for admission to that venue. In this case, the arrangements must allow any members and proxies excluded from attendance at the Principal Venue to attend at one of the other venues.
- 26. If, after the giving of notice of a meeting but before the meeting is held, or after the adjournment of a meeting but before the adjourned meeting is held (whether or not notice of the adjourned meeting is required), the directors decide that it is impracticable or unreasonable for reasons beyond their control to hold the meeting at the declared place (or any of the declared places, in the case of a meeting to which articles 19 to 25 apply) and/or time, they may change the place (or as appropriate any of the places) and/or postpone the time at which the meeting is to be held.
- 27. If such a decision is made, the directors may then change the place (or as appropriate any of the places) and/or postpone the time again if they decide that it is reasonable to do so.
- 28. In either case:
 - (i) no new notice of the meeting need be given, but the directors shall, if practicable, advertise the new place, date and/or time of the meeting in at least one leading national daily newspaper and shall make arrangements for notices of the change of place and/or postponement to appear at the original place and/or at the original time; and
 - (ii) an appointment of proxy in relation to the meeting may be deposited or delivered in any manner permitted by these Articles at any time not less than 48 hours before any new time fixed for holding the meeting.

29. The directors and, at any general meeting, the chair of the meeting may make any arrangement and impose any requirement or restriction they or the Chair considers appropriate to ensure the security of a meeting including, without limitation, requirements for evidence of identity to be produced by any person attending the meeting, the searching of their personal property and the restriction of items that may be taken into the meeting place. A director or the Secretary may refuse entry to a person who refuses to comply with these arrangements, requirements or restrictions. They may also arrange for persons to be removed from a meeting.

NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETINGS

30. Any general meeting of the Company shall be called by not less than fourteen clear days' notice in writing provided that a meeting of the Company shall, notwithstanding that it is called by shorter notice than that specified in this article, be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed by a majority in number of those Members entitled to attend and vote holding not less than 90% (ninety percent) of the total voting rights.
31. The notice shall specify the place, the day and hour of meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted and shall be given in any manner permitted by these Articles or in such manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting, to such persons as are, under these Articles, entitled to receive such notice from the Company. The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

32. No business shall be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business. Save as otherwise provided for in these Articles, the quorum shall be five Members present personally or by their proxy or a duly authorised representative (in the case of a Member who is a corporation).
33. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the holding of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened on the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place, or to such other place, day and such other time and place as the chair of the meeting shall appoint, and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting the Members present shall be the quorum.
34. No amendment to a resolution to be proposed as an ordinary resolution may be considered or voted on (other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error) unless either:
- (i) at least 48 hours before the time fixed for the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the ordinary resolution is to be considered, notice of the terms of the amendment and the intention to move it has been delivered by means of an instrument to the office or such other place as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose, or received in an electronic communication at such address (if any) for the time being notified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose; or
 - (ii) the chair of the meeting in their absolute discretion decides that the amendment may be considered and voted on.

35. No amendment to a resolution to be proposed as a special resolution may be considered or voted upon whatsoever, other than a mere clerical amendment to correct a patent error or as may otherwise be permitted by law.
36. If the chair of the meeting rules an amendment to any resolution admissible or out of order (as the case may be), the proceedings on the resolution shall not be invalidated by any error in their ruling. Any ruling by the chair of the meeting in relation to a resolution or an amendment to a resolution shall be final and conclusive.
37. With the consent of the chair of the meeting, a person who proposes an amendment to a resolution may withdraw it before it is put to the vote.
38. With the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present, the chair of the meeting may adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place, as the meeting shall determine. Whenever a meeting is adjourned for ten days or more notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given in the same manner as the original meeting. Otherwise, the Members shall not be entitled to any notice of an adjournment, or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting. No business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business which might have been transacted at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. In addition, the chair of the meeting may without such consent adjourn the meeting to another time and/or place if in their opinion:
 - (i) it is or is likely to be impracticable to hold or continue the meeting because of the number of members wishing to attend; or;
 - (ii) the conduct of any persons attending the meeting prevents or is likely to prevent the orderly conduct of the business of the meeting; or
 - (iii) (where a general meeting is being held at more than one place) the facilities at any such place have become inadequate; or
 - (iv) an adjournment is otherwise necessary so that the business of the meeting may be properly conducted.
39. The chair shall chair every general meeting, but if at any meeting they shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, or shall be unwilling to preside, the Members present shall choose another director or if no such other director be present, or if all the other directors present shall decline to take the chair, they shall choose a Member who is present to chair the meeting.
 - (i) At all general meetings a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall (subject to the Act and the CRM Directive Regulations) be decided on a show of hands by a majority of the Members present in person and entitled to vote unless before or upon the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll be demanded by the chair or by one or more Members present in person or by proxy, provided always that a resolution put to the vote of the meeting in order to decide the election or re-election of directors shall be decided on a poll whereby the person qualified receiving the highest number of votes of Members represented in person or by proxy and entitled to vote shall be deemed elected or re-elected as a director. To the extent that a general meeting shall be required to elect or re-elect more than one director, the person qualified receiving the next highest number of such votes shall be deemed elected or re-elected as a director and any further vacancies shall be deemed to be filled by the person or persons recording the next highest number of such votes.
 - (ii) If a poll is demanded, it shall take place at such time and place and in such a manner as the chair of the meeting shall decide and they may appoint scrutineers

(who need not be Members) and fix a time and place for declaring the result of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was taken. A declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution has been carried, or has been carried by a particular majority, or lost, or not carried by a particular majority, shall be conclusive, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be binding evidence thereof, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution.

- (iii) A director of the Company shall be entitled to attend and speak at any general meeting of the Company notwithstanding they are not a Member.

VOTES OF MEMBERS

- 41. Save as otherwise expressly provided in these Articles, every Member shall have one vote on a show of hands and on a poll.
- 42. Save as herein expressly provided, no person other than a Member duly registered in accordance with article 7, and who shall have paid every subscription or other sum (if any) which shall be due and payable to the Company in respect of the Member's membership, shall be entitled to receive notice of, to be present at and to vote, either personally, by the Member's corporate representative, or by proxy, or as proxy for another Member at any general meeting.
- 43. Any corporation which is a Member may (by resolution of its board of directors or other governing body) authorise any person to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company. A person so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation which they represent as that corporation could exercise if it were a Member at such meeting. Any director or the Secretary may (but shall not be bound to) require evidence of the authority of any representative.
- 44. Votes shall be given either personally or by proxy. A Member is entitled to appoint any person as the Member's proxy to attend, speak and vote at any general meeting of the Company, provided that such appointment does not result in a conflict of interest.
- 45. The appointment of a proxy shall not preclude a Member from attending and voting in person at the meeting.
- 46. An appointment of a proxy shall be:
 - (i) by means of an instrument or a document in electronic form;
 - (ii) in any usual or common form or in any other form which the directors may from time to time approve; and
 - (iii) executed by the appointor or the Member's agent or, if the appointor is a corporation by a duly authorised officer, attorney or other authorised person or under its common seal.
- 47. The directors may, if they think fit, but subject to the Statutes, at the Company's expense send forms of proxy for use at the meeting and issue invitations in electronic form to appoint a proxy in relation to the meeting in such form as the directors may approve.

48. The appointment of a proxy shall:
- (i) in the case of an instrument, be delivered personally or by post to the office or such other place within the United Kingdom as may be specified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose:
 - (a) in the notice convening the meeting; or
 - (b) in any form of proxy sent by or on behalf of the Company in relation to the meeting, not less than 48 hours (excluding Non-Working Days) before the time fixed for holding the meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or
 - (ii) in the case of an appointment in electronic form, where an address has been specified by or on behalf of the Company for the purpose of receiving documents in electronic form:
 - (a) in the notice convening the meeting;
 - (b) in any form of proxy sent by or on behalf of the Company in relation to the meeting; or
 - (c) in any invitation contained in electronic form to appoint a proxy issued by or on behalf of the Company in relation to the meeting, be received at that address not less than 48 hours (excluding Non-Working Days) before the time appointed for holding the meeting at which the person named in the appointment proposes to vote; or
 - (iii) in either case, where an adjourned meeting is to be held more than 48 hours after the time fixed for the original meeting, be delivered or received as set out in article 48(i) or 48(ii) after the meeting adjourned at least 24 hours before the time appointed for taking the meeting; or
 - (iv) in the case of an instrument, where an adjourned meeting is to be held 48 hours or less after the time fixed for the original meeting, be delivered at the original meeting to the chair of the meeting or to the Secretary or to any director or as directed at the meeting by the chair of the meeting.
49. If the appointment of proxy is not delivered or received in the manner required above, the appointment shall not be treated as valid and the person named in the appointment of proxy shall not be entitled to vote at the meeting in question.
50. No appointment of proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 12 months from the date stated in it as the date of its execution.
51. If two or more valid appointments of proxy are received in respect of the same Member in respect of the same meeting, the one which was executed last shall be treated as replacing and revoking the others; if the Company is unable to determine which was executed last, none of them shall be treated as valid.
52. An appointment of a proxy shall, unless the contrary is stated on the proxy, be valid as well for any adjournment of the meeting as for the meeting to which it relates. An appointment relating to more than one meeting (including any adjournment of a meeting) having been duly delivered for the purposes of any meeting shall not require to be delivered again in relation to any subsequent meetings to which it relates.

53. A vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death of the principal or revocation of the proxy, provided that no intimation of the death or revocation shall have been received at the registered office of the Company not less than one hour before the time fixed for holding the meeting.
54. An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or any other form which the directors may approve from time to time: -

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

55. Until otherwise determined by a general meeting, the number of directors (other than alternate directors) shall not be less than six or more than twelve. The Company may, by ordinary resolution, from time to time vary the minimum and/or maximum number of directors. A director shall not be required to be a Member.
56. Of the directors permitted by article 55, not more than four shall be executive directors (being directors who devote all or a substantial part of their time to the day to day running of the Company) and not more than eight shall be other non-executive directors.
57. Intentionally left blank.
58. The directors may appoint a person to be chair of the board of directors (the "Chair") and determine the period for which they are to hold office. The directors may also revoke any such appointment. The Chair shall chair all meetings of the directors at which they shall be present, but if at any meeting of the directors the Chair shall not be present within ten minutes after the time appointed for holding the meeting or shall have intimated their inability to be present, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chair of that meeting. The Chair shall be subject to the same provisions as to resignation, removal and retirement by rotation as the other directors. The Chair shall hold office until the annual general meeting next following their election when they may offer themselves for re-election. If re-elected as Chair they shall hold office thereafter. No person may offer themselves for election or re-election as Chair unless:-
- (i) their nomination is supported by two or more directors; and
 - (ii) written notice of their nomination is given to the Secretary not less than fourteen clear days before the board meeting or general meeting at which their election or re-election is to be considered.

59. Subject to the provision of this article 59, the directors may from time to time, and at any time, and upon such terms and conditions as they may from time to time determine, appoint any person as a director provided that the prescribed maximum is not thereby exceeded. Any director so appointed shall retain their office only until the next annual general meeting, and they shall then be eligible for re-election but they shall not be taken into account in determining the retirement of directors by rotation at such meeting.
60. Intentionally left blank.
61. The continuing directors may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the board of directors provided always that in the case that the directors shall at any time be reduced in number to less than the minimum number prescribed by or in accordance with these Articles, it shall be lawful for them to act for the purpose of filling up vacancies in the board, or of summoning a general meeting, but not for any other purpose.

DIRECTORS' FEES

62. Any director who holds any executive office or who serves on any committee or who acts as trustee of a retirement benefits scheme or employees' share scheme or who otherwise performs services which, in the opinion of the directors are beyond the ordinary duties of a director may be paid such extra remuneration by way of salary, commission or otherwise as the directors may determine.
63. The Company will pay to any director all proper and reasonable expenses incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the directors or of any committee or general meetings or otherwise in connection with the business of the Company or in the performance of their duties as a director.
64. The directors shall have power to pay, provide or procure the grant of retirement, death or disability benefits, annuities or other allowances, emoluments, benefits or gratuities to any person who is or has been at any time director of, or in the employment or service of, the Company or of any other undertaking which is or was at some time:
- (i) a subsidiary undertaking of the Company; or
 - (ii) otherwise associated with the Company or any such subsidiary undertaking,
- or of the predecessors in business of the Company or of any such subsidiary undertaking or associate and to the families and other relatives or dependants of any such person. For that purpose the directors may establish and maintain or participate in or contribute to any trust, scheme, association, arrangement or fund or pay premiums.

ALTERNATE DIRECTORS

65. Any director (other than an alternate director) may appoint any other director, or any other person approved by resolution of the directors and willing to act, to be an alternate director and may remove from office an alternate director so appointed by them.
66. An alternate director shall be entitled to receive notice of all meetings of directors and of all meetings of committees of directors of which their appointor is a member, to attend and vote at any such meeting at which the director appointing them is not personally present, and generally to perform all the functions of their appointor as a director in their absence but shall not be entitled to receive any remuneration from the Company for their services as an alternate director but shall be entitled to be repaid expenses in accordance with article 63. It shall not be necessary to give notice of such a meeting to an alternate director who is absent from the United Kingdom.

67. An alternate director shall cease to be an alternate director if their appointor ceases to be a director; but if a director retires by rotation or otherwise but is reappointed or is deemed to have been reappointed at the meeting at which they retire, any appointment of an alternate director made by them which was in force immediately prior to their retirement shall continue after their re-appointment.
68. Any appointment or removal of an alternate director shall be by notice to the Company signed by the director making the appointment or removal or in any other manner approved by the directors and shall be effective on receipt of such notice by the Company which shall, in the case of a notice contained in an instrument, be at the office or the meeting of directors or, in the case of a notice contained in an electronic communication, be at such address (if any) for the time being notified by or on behalf of the Company for the purpose.
69. Save as otherwise provided in these Articles, an alternate director shall be deemed for all purposes to be a director and shall be subject in all respects to these Articles relating to directors and shall alone be responsible to the Company for their own acts and defaults and they shall not be deemed to be the agent of the director appointing them.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF DIRECTORS

70. Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles (including Article 73A below) and to any directions given by a special resolution, the business of the Company shall be managed by the directors who may exercise all the powers of the Company and do on behalf of the Company all such acts as may be exercised and done by the Company and are not by the Act or by these Articles required to be exercised or done by the Members in general meeting. No alteration of these Articles and no such direction shall invalidate any prior act of the directors which would have been valid if that alteration had not been made or that direction had not been given. The powers given by this regulation shall not be limited by any special power given to the directors by these Articles and a meeting of directors at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the directors.
71. The directors may at their own discretion and upon such terms in all respects as they think fit raise or borrow money for the purposes of the Company's business and may mortgage or charge the whole or any part of the undertaking, assets and property of the Company (present or future); and may, subject to and in accordance with the Statutes, issue debentures, debenture stock, mortgages or other securities whether outright or as collateral, security for any guarantee, debt, liability or obligation of the Company or any third party.
72. The directors may regulate the general expenses of the Company and fix the salaries and emoluments of all officers and employees, having regard to the recommendations of the committee of management and/or the chief executive (from time to time, if any).
73. All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company, shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed, or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as the directors (or any duly authorised committee of the directors) shall from time to time determine.
- 73A. Without prejudice to the generality of article 1(e), the exercise of any powers and, as the case may be, performance of any duties of the directors set out in these Articles shall be subject to any restrictions on such powers and the obligations and duties as are set out in the CRM Directive Regulations and shall be in compliance with and subject to any general policy or other such document as may be adopted by the Members in general assembly pursuant to the requirements of the CRM Directive Regulations and in exercising such powers and duties the directors shall not be required or obliged to do so in any manner that would cause the Company to be in breach of the CRM Directive Regulations.

- 73B. The supervisory function as required under the CRM Directive Regulations (the “Supervisory Function”) shall be carried out by the non-executive directors of the Company and such persons shall report on the exercise of their powers in that regard to a general meeting at least once a year.
- 73C. The following matters are delegated from the Members to the persons exercising the Supervisory Function (in accordance with the CRM Directive Regulations):
- (i) the Company’s risk management policy;
 - (ii) the approval of any acquisition, sale or hypothecation of immovable property by the Company;
 - (iii) the approval of mergers and alliances involving the Company, the setting-up of subsidiaries by the Company, and the acquisition by the Company of other entities or shares or rights in other entities; and
 - (iv) the approval of the Company taking out loans, granting loans or providing security for loans.

DIRECTORS’ INTERESTS

74. (i) Save as otherwise provided by these Articles, a director who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a transaction or arrangement with the Company or a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company shall declare the nature and extent of their interest to the other directors in accordance with article 74(ii).
- (ii) A director shall declare the nature and extent of their interest:
- (a) in respect of a transaction or arrangement that has been entered into by the Company, as soon as reasonably practicable; and
 - (b) in respect of a proposed transaction or arrangement with the Company, before the Company enters into such transaction or arrangement.
- Such declaration shall be made to the other directors:
- (aa) at a meeting of the VPL Board;
 - (bb) by notice in writing; or
 - (cc) by way of general notice given at a meeting of the VPL Board to the effect that the director has an interest in a specified body corporate or is connected with a specified person and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction or arrangement that may be made with the specified body corporate or person.
- (iii) A declaration of interest is not required in accordance with article 75(i):
- (a) if the director is not aware of the interest or the relevant transaction or arrangement;
 - (b) if the interest cannot reasonably be regarded as likely to give rise to a conflict of interest; or

- (c) to the extent that the other directors are already aware of the interest.
- (iv) Save as otherwise provided by the Articles, a director shall not vote at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors on any resolution concerning a matter in which they have, directly or indirectly, an interest or duty which is material and which conflicts or may conflict with the interests of the Company unless the remaining directors at such meeting authorise, on such terms and subject to such limits or conditions, if any, as they may determine, the conflict and allow the relevant director to so vote or their interests or duty arise only because the case falls within one or more of the following paragraphs:-
 - (a) any arrangement for giving any director any guarantee, security or indemnity in respect of money lent by them or obligations undertaken by them for the benefit of the Company; or
 - (b) any arrangement for the giving by the Company of any guarantee, security or indemnity to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company for which the director themselves has assumed responsibility in whole or in part under a guarantee or indemnity or by the granting of a security; or
 - (c) any contract by a director to subscribe for or underwrite shares or debentures of the Company; or
 - (d) any contract or arrangement with any other company in which they are interested (directly or indirectly) only as an officer of the Company or as holder of shares or other securities; or
 - (e) any contract or arrangement for Company Officers' liability assurance to be purchased and/or maintained pursuant to article 124.

For the purposes of this article, an interest of a person who is connected with a director (within the meaning of section 252 of the Act) shall be treated as an interest of the director and, in relation to an alternate director, an interest of their appointor shall be treated as an interest of the alternate director without prejudice to any interest which the alternate director has otherwise.

- (iii) A director may hold any other office or place of profit under the Company (other than the office of auditor) in conjunction with their office of director for such period and on such terms (as to remuneration and otherwise) as the directors may determine and no director or intending director shall be disqualified by their office from contracting with the Company either with regard to their tenure of any such other office or place of profit or as vendor, purchaser or otherwise, nor shall any such contract or any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any director is in any way interested, be liable to be avoided, nor shall any director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realised by any such contract or arrangement by reason of such director holding that office or of the fiduciary relation thereby established.
- (iv) Any director may act by themselves or their firm in a professional capacity for the Company, and they or their firm shall be entitled to remuneration for professional services as if they were not a director; provided that nothing herein contained shall authorise a director or their firm to act as auditor to the Company.

- (v) A director, notwithstanding their interest, shall be counted in the quorum present at a meeting in relation to a resolution on which they are not entitled to vote but may be excluded by resolution of the remaining directors present at the meeting during that part of the meeting as relates to the relevant resolution.
- (vi) Subject to the Act, and the CRM Directive Regulations, the Company may by ordinary resolution in general meeting suspend or relax to any extent, either generally or in respect of any particular matter, contract, arrangement or transaction, any provision of these Articles prohibiting a director from voting at a meeting of directors or of a committee of directors.

DISQUALIFICATION AND REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS

75. The office of director shall be vacated by a director: -
- (i) if they become bankrupt or they make any arrangement or composition with their creditors generally or shall apply to the court for an interim order under section 253 of the Insolvency Act 1986 in connection with a voluntary arrangement under that act; or
 - (ii) if they are, or may be, suffering from mental disorder and/or either they are admitted to hospital for treatment, or an order is made by a court (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) having jurisdiction in matters concerning mental disorder for their detention or for the appointment of a receiver, curator bonis or other person to exercise powers with respect to their property or affairs and, in either case, the directors resolve that their office be vacated; or
 - (iii) if by notice in writing to the Company they resign their office, in which case they shall vacate that office on the delivery of that notice to the Company or at such later times as specified in that notice;
 - (iv) if they are removed or prohibited from being a director under any provision of law; or
 - (v) if they are removed from office by notice in an instrument given to them and executed by not less than three quarters of their co-directors (or their alternates), but so that in the case of a director holding an executive office which automatically determines on their ceasing to be a director such removal shall be deemed an act of the Company and shall have effect without prejudice to any claim for damages in respect of the consequent termination of their executive office.
76. The Company may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of their period of office, and may by an ordinary resolution appoint a person qualified in their stead; but any person so appointed shall be subject to re-election in accordance with article 79.

APPOINTMENT AND RETIREMENT OF DIRECTORS

77. At each annual general meeting, one third of the directors for the time being shall retire from office. If the number of directors for the time being is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to but not exceeding one third shall retire from office. A retiring director shall retain their office until the dissolution or adjournment of the meeting at which their successor is elected or it is determined not to fill their place.

78. The directors to retire shall be those directors who have been longest in office since their last election or appointment. The length of time a director has been in office shall be computed from their last election or appointment. As between directors of equal seniority, the directors to retire shall in the absence of agreement be selected from them by lot. Any retiring director shall be eligible for re-election at the meeting at which they retire.
79. The Company shall, at the meeting at which a director retires in the manner aforesaid, fill up the vacated office by election, unless at such meeting it shall be determined either not to fill the vacant office or else to reduce the number of directors.
80. No person other than a director retiring by rotation at the meeting shall, unless recommended by the directors for election, be eligible for election to the office of director at any general meeting, unless nominated in writing by one or more Members and approved by the directors within the prescribed time before the day appointed for the meeting. Such nomination must be accompanied by notice in writing, signed by the person to be proposed, of their willingness to be elected together with evidence of their suitability for the office of director. Such nomination and such prescribed time shall be not less than seven clear days before the day appointed for the meeting.

APPOINTMENTS BY DIRECTORS

81. The directors may from time to time appoint a chief executive and/or a committee of management to conduct the general business of the Company for such a term and at such remuneration as they think fit and may from time to time decide, and may delegate to such chief executive and/or committee of management, all or such of their administrative powers as they may deem necessary for the full and proper conduct and administration of the affairs of the Company. The person or persons appointed by the directors as such chief executive or as members of such committee of management shall not necessarily be a Member or Members of the Company. Subject to the provisions of any contract of service that may be entered into between the directors and such person or persons, the directors may from time to time remove such person or persons, or any of them, and appoint some other person or persons in their or their place.
82. The directors may appoint one or more directors to hold any executive office (including managing director) on such terms and for such period (subject to the Statutes) as it may determine and may at any time revoke or terminate any such appointment, without prejudice to any claim under any contract entered into in any particular case.
83. The appointment of any director to any executive office shall automatically determine if they cease to be a director but without prejudice to any claim for damages for breach of any contract of service between them and the Company.
84. The directors may entrust to and confer upon any director any of their powers, authorities and discretions (with power to sub-delegate) on such terms and conditions and with such restrictions as they think fit, and either collaterally with, or to the exclusion, of their own powers, and may revoke, withdraw or vary all or any of such powers.
85. Without limiting article 84, the directors may delegate any of their powers, authorities or discretions to a committee. Any such committee shall, unless the directors otherwise resolve, have power to sub-delegate to any sub-committees any of the powers or discretions delegated to it. Any such committee or sub-committee shall consist of one or more of the directors and (if thought fit, and subject to article 86) one or more other persons co-opted to the committee. Any such delegation shall be made on such terms and conditions as the directors think fit, and may be revoked or altered.

86. Any committee or sub-committee so formed shall, in the exercise of the powers so delegated, conform to any regulations which may be imposed on it by the directors. Any such regulations may provide for, or authorise, the co-option to the committee or sub-committee of persons other than directors and for such co-opted members to have voting rights as members of the committee or sub-committee provided that no resolution of the committee shall be effective unless a majority of the voting members of the committee present at the meeting are directors or alternates of directors.
87. PROCEEDINGS OF DIRECTORS

88. The directors may meet together for the dispatch of business, adjourn and otherwise regulate their meetings as they think fit, and determine the quorum necessary for the transaction of business. 95. A resolution in writing, executed by all the directors entitled to notice of and to vote at a meeting of the directors (provided that their number is sufficient to constitute a quorum) shall be as valid and effective as a resolution passed at a meeting of directors duly convened and held. The directors shall provide for the safe custody of the Seal, which shall only be used with the authority of the directors or of a committee of the directors authorised by the directors, and every instrument to which the Seal shall be affixed shall be signed by a director and shall be countersigned by the Secretary or by a second director, or some other person appointed by the directors or a committee of the directors for the purpose. A document signed, with the authority of the directors or a committee of the directors, by a director

NOTICES

104. Any notice to be given to or by any person under these Articles (other than a notice calling a meeting of the directors) shall be in writing, except where otherwise expressly stated. Any such notice may be in electronic form to a person who has agreed that the notice may be sent or supplied in that form and has notified the person sending the notice of an address for that purpose and in the case of communications between the Company and the Members, in accordance with the following articles 105 - 111.

 - (vi) by any other method approved by the directors from time to time.

Without limiting the previous sentence, any notice of a general meeting of the Company which is in fact sent or purports to be sent to such address shall be ignored for the purposes of determining the validity of proceedings at such meeting.
107. Subject to the Statutes, the Company may also give any Document under these Articles to a Member by publishing that Document on a website where:
- (i) the Member has agreed (generally or specifically) that the Document may be sent or supplied to the Member in that manner or the Member is deemed to have so agreed as the Member failed to respond to an individual request from the Company to send Documents in that manner within 28 days of the date on which the Company's request was sent;

108. In article 107, “Publication Period” means:
- (i) the period specified by any applicable provision of the Act or of these Articles; or

- (ii) if no such period is specified, a period of not less than 28 days, beginning on the day on which the notification referred to in article 111(iii) is sent to the Member in question.
- 109. The directors may from time to time issue, endorse or adopt terms and conditions relating to the use of electronic means for the giving of Documents and proxy appointments by the Company to Members and by Members to the Company.
- 110. Proof that an envelope containing a Document was properly addressed, prepaid and posted shall be conclusive evidence that the Document was given. Proof that a Document contained in electronic form was sent or given in accordance with guidance issued by the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators current at the date of adoption of these Articles, or, if the directors so resolve, any subsequent guidance so issued, shall be conclusive evidence that the Document was sent or given. A Document sent by the Company to a Member by post shall be deemed to be given or delivered:
 - (i) if sent by first class post or special delivery post from an address in the United Kingdom to another address in the United Kingdom, or by a postal service similar to first class post or special delivery post from an address in another country to another address in that other country, on the day following that on which the envelope containing it was posted;

Such a Document shall be deemed given by the Company to the Member on that day notwithstanding that the Company becomes aware that the Member has failed to receive the relevant Document for any reason and notwithstanding that the Company subsequently sends a copy of such Document by post to the Member.
- 112. Unless otherwise provided by these Articles, a Member shall give any Document under these Articles to the Company by whichever of the following methods the Member may in the Member's absolute discretion determine:
 - (i) by posting the Document in a prepaid envelope addressed to the registered office of the Company (the "Office"); or
 - (ii) by leaving the Document at the Office; or
 - (iii) by sending the Document in electronic form to such address (if any) for the time being notified by or on behalf of the Company for that purpose.
- 113. If at any time by reason of the suspension or curtailment of postal services within the United Kingdom, the Company is unable effectively to convene a general meeting by notices sent through the post, a general meeting may be convened by a notice advertised in at least one leading national daily newspaper and such notice shall be deemed to have been given to all Members and other persons entitled to receive it on the day when the advertisement appears (or first appears). In any such case the Company shall send confirmatory copies of the notice by post if at least seven days prior to the meeting the posting of notices to addresses throughout the United Kingdom again becomes practicable.

114. A Member present in person at any meeting of the Company shall be deemed to have received notice of the meeting and, where requisite, of the purposes for which it was called.

116. Nothing in these Articles shall affect any requirement of the Statutes that any particular offer, notice or other document be served in any particular manner.
117. For the purposes of giving notices of meetings or other documents, whether under these Articles or under section 310 of the Act, any other Statute or any other statutory instrument, the Company may determine that persons entitled to receive such notices or other documents are those persons entered on the Register at the close of business on a day determined by it.
118. The day determined by the Company under article 117 may not be more than 15 days before the day that the notice of the meeting or other document is sent.
119. For the purposes of determining which persons are entitled to attend and/or vote at a meeting, and how many votes such persons may cast, the Company may specify in the notice of the meeting a time, not more than 48 hours before the time fixed for the meeting, by which a person must be entered on the Register in order to have the right to attend and/or vote at the meeting.
120. A notice may be given by the Company to the persons entitled to apply for membership in consequence of the death bankruptcy or an order made by reason of a mental disorder of a Member by sending or delivering it, in any manner authorised by these Articles for the giving of notice to a Member addressed to the Member by name, or by the title of representatives of the deceased or trustee of the bankrupt or receiver or curator bonis of the Member or any like description at the address, if any, within the United Kingdom supplied for that purpose by the persons claiming to be so entitled. Until such an address has been supplied, a notice may be given in any manner in which it might have been given if the death, bankruptcy or order made by reason of mental disorder had not occurred or been made.

121. Subject to the provisions of and so far as may be consistent with the Statutes, every director or other officer of the Company shall be indemnified out of the funds of the Company against all costs, charges, losses, expenses and liabilities incurred by them in the actual or purported execution and/or discharge of their duties and/or the exercise or purported exercise of their powers and/or otherwise in relation to or in connection with their duties, powers or office including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) any liability incurred by them in defending any proceedings (whether civil or criminal) which relate to anything done or omitted or alleged to have been done or omitted by them as an officer of the Company and in which judgement is given in their favour (or the proceedings are otherwise disposed of without any finding or admission of any material breach of duty on their part) or in which they are acquitted or in connection with any application under any statute for relief from liability in respect of any such act or omission in which relief is granted to them by the Court.
