PPL AND PRS FOR MUSIC JOINT COMMUNITY RADIO LICENCE: [LICENSEE NAME]

INTRODUCTION:

- (1) PPL and PRS for Music provide services to rights owners and users for the collective licensing of rights in sound recordings and musical works respectively. PRS for Music also licenses production music (also known as library music) sound recordings. PPL distributes licence fee revenue to record companies and to performers. PRS for Music distributes licence fee revenue to songwriters, composers and publishers. PRS for Music is the trading name of two separate societies: PRS, which administers the performing right in its members' musical works (including the right to broadcast the works) and MCPS, which administers the mechanical right in its members' musical works (including the right to copy the works) and the performing right in its members' production music sound recordings. In this Agreement, PRS for Music refers to both PRS and MCPS.
- (2) The Licensee operates an OFCOM-licensed community radio station pursuant to an OFCOM Licence in the UK and wishes to obtain the right to use the repertoire of PPL and PRS for Music in the OFCOM-licensed community radio service and certain closely related simulcasts and ancillary uses, all subject to the terms below.
- (3) Each of PPL and PRS for Music wish to grant the Licensee a licence for the use of their respective repertoire as part of the OFCOM-licensed community radio service and certain closely related simulcasts and ancillary uses and, where the Licensee uses a central database that is hosted on a server in the UK, for the copying of their respective repertoire onto the server solely for the foregoing purpose all subject to the terms below.
- (4) PPL and PRS for Music each license their repertoire for use as described above separately, but these licences are administered together by PPL. For this purpose PPL acts as the agent of PRS for Music. Each licence also has common operating conditions.
- (5) The issue of this Agreement to a prospective licensee does not in itself grant any rights. Subject to the ongoing eligibility criteria set out in Clause 1.1 of Part 4, this Agreement only comes into force (and permission to use PPL's repertoire and PRS for Music's repertoire on the terms below will only be effective);
 - a) Once the application for the Licences has been completed, the Licensee has fully paid all licence fees for the current licence period and a receipted invoice has been issued by PPL; and
 - b) In relation to applicants who were operating the Originating Service applied for prior to the Licence Start Date, provided that at the time of application, the Licensee held valid licences from both PPL and PRS for Music in relation to the operation of all elements of the Service for the period immediately prior to the Licence Start Date. Should the Licensee hold a valid licence from one, but not both of PPL and PRS for Music for the period immediately prior to the Licence Start Date, then this Agreement shall not come into force, but the Licensee may be eligible for a separate PPL or PRS for Music Licence upon substantially similar terms, to be agreed with the Licensor whose predecessor licence is in place.

- (6) To be eligible for the licences set out in this Agreement, the Licensee must hold a valid, current OFCOM Licence for its Originating Service.
- (7) The Licences granted by PPL, PRS and MCPS can each be terminated pursuant to Clause 11 of the Common Operating Conditions individually by either;
- a) the relevant Licensor (for example, PPL in the case of the PPL Licence); or
 - b) the Licensee.
- For the avoidance of doubt, termination of one Licence does not by itself cause the termination of any other Licence still in force at that time. This Agreement shall terminate upon expiry and/or termination of all Licences.
- (8) This Agreement is structured as follows:
- (a) This Agreement consists of this document comprising this Introduction and Parts 1 to 5 below.
 - (b) Details of the Licensee and of the Service are set out in Part 1 – Licence Particulars.
 - (c) Subject to the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement, the Licensee is to be granted three licences – the PPL Licence, the PRS Licence and the MCPS Licence – for the Service.
 - i. Details of the rights granted by PPL (on its own behalf) are set out in Part 2 – PPL Grant.
 - ii. Details of the rights granted by PPL (on behalf of PRS of Music) in the PRS Licence and the MCPS Licence are set out in Part 3 – PRS for Music Grant.
 - iii. Details of the terms and conditions that apply to the Licences are set out in Part 4 – Common Operating Conditions.
 - (d) The meanings of various defined terms used in this Agreement are set out in Part 5 – Glossary/Definitions.
